34. We face competition in our business from domestic competitors. Such competition would have an adverse impact on our business and financial performance.

We operate in a competitive environment and we face competition from both organized and unorganized sector. The nature of our business is also a determining factor for the level, degree and impact of competition that we face. Our Company faces competition from number of other players in the industry. Some of our competitors have greater financial, marketing, sales and other resources than we do. Our Company has been able to sustain in the competition due to its financial strength, fleet strength and low overheads. 36. The Company may not be able to obtain adequate funding required to carry out its future plans for growth.

Disruptions in global credit and financial markets and the resulting governmental actions around the world could have a material adverse impact on the Company's ability to meet its funding needs. The Company, to carry out its day-to-day operations in the Transport industry requires continuous access to large quantities of capital.

37. Our indebtedness and the conditions and restrictions imposed by our financing arrangements could adversely affect our ability to conduct our business and operations.

We have entered into agreements with certain banks, financial institutions and NBFCs for short-term and long-term borrowings. Some of these agreements contain restrictive covenants, including, but not limited to, requirements that we obtain written consent from lenders prior to issuing new shares, incurring further debt, creating further encumbrances on our assets, effecting any scheme of amalgamation or restructuring, undertaking guarantee obligations, declaring dividends or making investments. There can be no assurance that we will be able to comply with these covenants or that we will be able to obtain the consents necessary to take the actions we believe are required to operate and grow our business. Certain of our loans may be called at any time by our lenders pursuant to terms of the relevant agreements. An event of default under any of these loan arrangements, if not cured or waived, could have a material adverse effect on us.

38. Our lenders have charge over our movable and immovable properties in respect of finance availed by us.

The total amounts outstanding and payable by us as secured loans were Rs. 6483.97 Lakhs as on January 31, 2017. In the event, we default in repayment of the loans / facilities availed by us and any interest thereof, our properties may be forfeited by lenders, which in turn could have significant adverse effect on business, financial condition or results of operations. For further information please refer to the chapter titled "Financial Indebtedness" beginning on page 206 of this Prospectus.

39. We have entered into certain transactions with related parties. These transactions or any future transactions with our related parties could potentially involve conflicts of interest.

We have entered into certain transactions with related parties, including our Group Companies, our Directors and our Key Managerial Personnel and their relatives and may continue to do so in future. For absolute value of all transactions entered into with our related party entities please refer to Statement of Related Party Transactions of restated financials of our Company, beginning on page 163 of this Prospectus. These transactions or any future transactions with our related parties could potentially involve conflicts of interest.

40. Our promoters and promoter group will continue to retain significant control over our Company after the IPO.

After completion of the Issue, our Promoters and Promoter Group will collectively own 73.52% of the Equity Shares. As a result, our Promoters together with the members of the Promoter Group will be able to exercise a significant degree of influence over us and will be able to control the outcome of any proposal that can be approved by a majority shareholder vote, including, the election of members to our Board, in accordance with the Companies Act and our Articles of Association. Such a concentration of ownership may also have the effect of delaying, preventing or deterring a change in control of our Company.

In addition, our Promoters will continue to have the ability to cause us to take actions that are not in, or may conflict with, our interests or the interests of some or all of our creditors or minority shareholders, and we cannot assure you that such actions will not have an adverse effect on our future financial performance or the price of our Equity Shares.

Hence, we have not appointed a monitoring agency to monitor the utilization of Issue proceeds. However, the audit committee of our Board will monitor the utilization of Issue proceeds. Further, our Company shall inform about material deviations in the utilization of issue proceeds to the NSE and shall also simultaneously make the material deviations / adverse comments of the audit committee public.

42. Delay in raising funds from the IPO could adversely impact the implementation schedule.

The proposed expansion, as detailed in the section titled "Objects of the Issue" is to be entirely funded from the proceeds of this IPO. We have not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to mobilize the required resources or any shortfall in the Issue proceeds may delay the implementation schedule. We therefore, cannot assure that we would be able to execute the expansion plan within the given time frame, or within the costs as originally estimated by us. Any time overrun or cost overrun may adversely affect our growth plans and profitability.

43. The Objects of the Issue for which funds are being raised, are based on our management estimates and any bank or financial institution or any independent agency has not appraised the same. The deployment of funds is entirely at our discretion, based on the parameters as mentioned in the chapter titled "Objects of the Issue".

These fund requirements are based on our current business plan. We cannot assure that the current business plan will be implemented in its entirety or at all. In view of the highly competitive and dynamic nature of our business, we may have to revise our business plan from time to time and consequently these fund requirements. The deployment of the funds as stated under chapter titled "Objects of the Issue" is at the discretion of our Board of Directors and is not subject to monitoring by any external independent agency. Further, we cannot assure that the actual costs or schedule of implementation as stated under chapter "Objects of the Issue" will not vary from the estimated costs or schedule of implementation. Any such variance may be on account of one or more factors, some of which may be beyond our control. Occurrence of any such event may delay our business plans and/or may have an adverse bearing on our expected revenues and earnings.

44. We have not independently verified certain data in this Prospectus.

We have not independently verified data from industry publications contained herein and although we believe these sources to be reliable, we cannot assure you that they are complete or reliable. Such data may also be produced on a different basis from comparable information compiled with regard to other countries. Therefore, discussions of matters relating to India and its economy are subject to the caveat that the statistical and other data upon which such discussions are based have not been verified by us and may be incomplete or unreliable.

B. Risk related to this Issue and our Equity Shares

45. Any future issue of Equity Shares may dilute your shareholding and sales of our Equity Shares by our Promoters or other major shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any future equity issues by us, including in a primary offering, may lead to the dilution of investors' shareholdings in us. Any future equity issuances by us or sales of its Equity Shares by the Promoters may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur could also affect the trading price of our Equity Shares.

46. Our ability to pay any dividends in the future will depend upon future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements and capital expenditures.

The amount of our future dividend payments, if any, will depend upon our Company's future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements, capital expenditures, applicable Indian legal restrictions and other factors. STT will be levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which the Equity Shares are sold. Any gain realized on the sale of equity shares held for more than 12 months to an Indian resident, which are sold other than on a recognized stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, will be subject to long term capital gains tax in India. Further, any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short term capital gains tax. Any change in tax provisions may significantly impact your return on investments.

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

48. Political, Economic and Social changes in India could adversely affect our business.

Our business, and the market price and liquidity of our Company's shares, may be affected by changes in Government policies, including taxation, social, political, economic or other developments in or affecting India could also adversely affect our business. Since 1991, successive governments have pursued policies of economic liberalization and financial sector reforms including significantly relaxing restrictions on the private sector. In addition, any political instability in India may adversely affect the Indian economy and the Indian securities markets in general, which could also affect the trading price of our Equity Shares.

49. Our business is dependent on economic growth in India.

Our performance is dependent on the health of the overall Indian economy. There have been periods of slowdown in the economic growth of India. India economic growth is affected by various factors including domestic consumption and savings, balance of trade movements primarily resulting from export demand and movements in key imports, such as oil and oil products, and annual rainfall, which affect agricultural production. For example, in the monsoon of 2009, several parts of the country experienced below average rainfall, leading to reduced farm output which impaired economic growth. In the past, economic slowdowns have harmed industries and industrial development in the country. Any future slowdown in the Indian economy could harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.

50. The extent and reliability of Indian infrastructure could adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

India's physical infrastructure is less developed than that of many developed countries. Any congestion or disruption in its port, rail and road networks, electricity grid, communication systems or any other public facility could disrupt our normal business activity. Any deterioration of India's physical infrastructure would harm the national economy, disrupt the transportation of goods and supplies, and add costs to doing business in India. These problems could interrupt our business operations, which could have an adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

If the rate of Indian price inflation increases, our results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected. In recent years, India's wholesale price inflation index has indicated an increasing inflation trend compared to prior periods. An increase in inflation in India could cause a rise in the price of transportation, wages, or any other expenses. If this trend continues, we may be unable to reduce our costs or pass our increased costs on to our customers and our results of operations and financial condition may be materially and adversely affected.

51. Global economic downturn and adverse market conditions could cause our business to suffer. A slowdown in economic growth in India could cause our business to suffer.

The developed economies of the world viz. U.S., Europe, Japan and others are in midst of a downturn affecting their economic condition and markets general business and consumer sentiment has been adversely affected due to the global slowdown and there can be no assurance whether the developed economies or the emerging market economies will see good economic growth in the near future. Consequently, this has also affected the global stock and commodity markets. Our performance and growth is directly related to the performance of the Indian economy. The performance of the Indian economy is dependent among other things on the interest rate, political and regulatory actions, liberalization policies, commodity and energy prices etc. A change in any of the factors would affect the growth prospects of the Indian economy, which may in turn adversely impact our results of operations, and consequently the price of our Equity Shares.

52. Regional hostilities, terrorist attacks, communal disturbances, civil unrest and other acts of violence or war involving India and other countries may result in a loss of investor confidence and adversely affect the financial markets and our business.

Some parts of India have experienced communal disturbances, terrorist attacks and riots during recent years. If such events recur, our operational and marketing activities may be adversely affected, resulting in a decline in our income. The Asian region has, from time to time, experienced instances of civil unrest and hostilities among neighboring countries. Since May 1999, military confrontations between countries have occurred in Kashmir. The hostilities between India and its neighboring countries are particularly threatening because India and certain of its neighbors possess nuclear weapons. Hostilities and tensions may occur in the future and on a wider scale. Also, since 2003, there have been military hostilities and continuing civil unrest and instability in Afghanistan. There has also recently been hostility in the Korean Peninsula. In July 2006 and November 2008, terrorist attacks in Mumbai resulted in numerous casualties. Events of this nature in the future, as well as social and civil unrest within other countries in Asia, could influence the Indian economy and could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies, including our Equity Shares.

53. The occurrence of natural disasters may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The occurrence of natural disasters, including hurricanes, floods, earthquakes, tornadoes, fires and pandemic disease may adversely affect our financial condition or results of operations. The potential impact of a natural disaster on our results of operations and financial position is speculative, and would depend on numerous factor. The extent and severity of these natural disasters determines their effect on the Indian economy. Although the long term effect of diseases such as the H5N1 —avian flul virus, or H1N1, the swine flu virus, cannot currently be predicted, previous occurrences of avian flu and swine flu had an adverse effect on the economies of those countries in which they were most prevalent. An outbreak of a communicable disease in India would adversely affect our business and financial conditions and results of operations. We cannot assure you that such events will not occur in the future or that our business, financial condition and results of operations will not be adversely affected.

54. Foreign investors are subject to foreign investment restrictions under Indian law that limits our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely impact the market price of the Equity Shares.

Under the foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfers of shares between nonresidents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If the transfer of shares, which are sought to be transferred, is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or fall under any of the exceptions referred to above, then the prior approval of the RBI will be required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert the Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India will require a no objection/ tax clearance certificate from the income tax authority. There can be no assurance that any approval required from the RBI or any other government agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all.

55. Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of corporate and tax laws, may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and subject to change. Such changes, including the instances mentioned below, may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects, to the extent that we are unable to suitably respond to and comply with any such changes in applicable law and policy.

The GoI has enacted a comprehensive national goods and services tax ("GST") regime that will combine taxes and levies by the Central and State Governments into a unified rate structure which is to be effective from July 01, 2017, may affect the overall tax efficiency of companies operating in India and may result in significant additional taxes becoming payable.

Further, the General Anti Avoidance Rules ("GAAR") are proposed to be made effective from April 01, 2017. The tax consequences of the GAAR provisions being applied to an arrangement could result in denial of tax benefit amongst other consequences. In the absence of any precedents on the subject, the application of these provisions is uncertain. If the GAAR provisions are made applicable to our Company, it may have an adverse tax impact on us.

We have not determined the impact of these proposed legislations on our business. Uncertainty in the applicability, Interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy in the jurisdictions in which we operate, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future.

SECTION III – INTRODUCTION

SUMMARY OF OUR INDUSTRY

Global Economic Overview

Global GDP growth is projected to pick up modestly to around 3.5 per cent in 2018, from just under 3% in 2016, boosted by fiscal initiatives in the major economies. The forecast is broadly unchanged since November 2016. Confidence has improved, but consumption, investment, trade and productivity are far from strong, with growth slow by past norms and higher inequality. Disconnect between financial markets and fundamentals, potential market volatility, financial vulnerabilities and policy uncertainties could, however, derail the modest recovery. The positive assessment reflected in market valuations appears disconnected from real economy prospects. The interest-rate cycle turned in mid-2016 and rising divergence in interest rates between major economies heightens risks of exchange rate volatility. Vulnerabilities remain in some advanced economies from rapid house price increases. Risks to emerging market economies are high, including from higher corporate debt, rising non-performing loans and vulnerability to external shocks.

1. Fiscal years starting in April.

Domestic demand in the United States is set to strengthen over the next two years and expand at a solid pace, helped by gains in household wealth and a gradual upturn in energy production. Employment is rising steadily, although the pace is expected to ease somewhat, and wages should continue to pick up as the labour market tightens. GDP growth is projected to pick up to 2.4% in 2017 and 2.8% in 2018, supported by an anticipated fiscal expansion, especially in 2018, despite higher long-term interest rates and continued headwinds from the stronger US dollar. Policy choices, including on the composition of fiscal spending, taxation, regulation and trade, are likely to have a significant impact on growth outcomes.

Indian Economy Overview

Introduction

According to the Economic Survey 2016-17, the Indian economy forecasts a growth rate of 6.75 to 7.5 per cent for FY18, as compared to the expected growth rate of 6.5 per cent in FY17. Over the medium run, the implementation of the Goods and Services Tax (GST), follow-up to demonetisation, and enacting other structural reforms should take the economy towards its potential real GDP growth of 8 per cent to 10 per cent.

Recent Trends

With the improvement in the economic scenario, there have been various investments leading to increased M&A activity. Some of them are as follows:

India has emerged as one of the strongest performers in terms of deals related to mergers and acquisitions (M&A). According to data from Thomson-Reuters, total M&A deals involving Indian companies grew by 82 per cent to US$ 27 billion during January to June 2016, which is the highest in the first six months in any year since 2011, led by a four and a half time increase of Indian acquisitions abroad at US$ 4.5 billion.

- The Government of India and the Government of the United States of America have signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) to enhance cooperation on energy security, clean energy and climate change through increased bilateral engagement and further joint initiatives for promoting sustainable growth.
- Under the new National Mineral Exploration Policy (NMEP), the Government of India plans to conduct e-auction of 62 mineral blocks of minerals such as iron ore, limestone and gold located across several states to further open up the mining sector and increase output of minerals in 2016-17.
- The Department of Electronics and Information Technology (DeitY) has been entrusted with the task of developing India's first national social security platform, aimed at distributing social security benefits directly to the beneficiaries account, thus doing away with intermediaries.
- According to The World Bank, India's per capita income is expected to cross Rs 100,000 (US$ 1,505) in FY 2017 from Rs 93,231 (US$ 1,403.5) in FY 2016.
- India's Index of Industrial Production (IIP) grew by 2.1 per cent year-on-year in June 2016, led by expansion in electricity and mining production.
- India's Consumer Price Index (CPI) inflation increased to 6.07 per cent in July 2016 as compared to 5.77 per cent in June 2016. On the other hand, the India's Wholesale Price Index (WPI) inflation increased to 3.6 per cent in July 2016, a 23-month high, as against negative 1.62 per cent in the previous month.

OVERVIEW OF LOGISTICS INDUSTRY IN INDIA

As per the Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India (ASSOCHAM), currently the annual logistics cost of the world is estimated at about USD 3.5 Trillion. India spends around 14.4% of its GDP on logistics and transportation as compared to less than 8% by the other developing countries. Indian freight transport market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 13.35% by 2020 driven by the growth in the manufacturing, retail, FMCG and e-commerce sectors. Freight transport market in India is expected to be worth US$ 307.70 billion by 2020 as compared to around US$ 164.45 billion in 2015. In India Road Freight constitutes around 63% of the total freight movement consisting of 2.2 million heavy duty trucks and 0.6 million light duty trucks annually. The road freight movement is expected to increase at a CAGR of 15%. The Sea Freight consists of around 9% of the total freight market and is mainly used as a major mode for imports and exports. The air freight consists of around 1% of the total freight market in India which will grow around 12.5% CAGR over the next 5 years. Companies in India currently outsource an estimated 52% of logistics and 3PL represents only 1% of logistics cost. As of now, the 3PL activity is limited to only few industries like automotive, IT hardware, telecom and infrastructure equipment. In developing countries like India, an efficient logistics infrastructure can reduce the cost of transportation which in turn can contribute directly to economic development. However, India lags behind several other countries in the global setup in terms of logistics infrastructure and services. Inadequate infrastructure is the major bottleneck impacting the development of logistics and the efficient movement of cargo in the country. However, investments in the logistics sector in the form of Port infrastructure development, Dedicated Freight Corridors, development of national highways, expanding the reach of the railways will play a central role in the future of this industry. According to the survey conducted by the Transport intelligence in 2013 ranks India as the second most attractive logistics market in the future after china. In India, about 110 new logistics parks are expected to be operational with an estimated cost of USD 1 Bn. Hence, India offers huge opportunities in development of logistics services including warehousing, cold storage, shipping, ports and multi modal transportation, etc.

Key trends driving the growth of Logistic Industry in India include:

- Higher levels of outsourced logistics
- Increasing complexity of logistics services requirements
- Increasing orientation towards global best practices

Several companies are increasingly leaning toward outsourcing and third-party logistics (3PL) models to optimize costs and focus on the core business. This trend is catalyzing consolidation and development in the highly-fragmented transport and logistics industry.

In addition, evolving regulatory changes are expected to boost private participation buoy by providing incentives to investors and operators — in the form of tax breaks — which will enhance supply-side infrastructure and capabilities.

Among the modal mix, roads continue to constitute the most significant component of India's logistics industry, accounting for 60 percent of total freight movement in the country. The share of road transport can expect additional growth, given its ability to facilitate last-mile reach and limited supporting rail infrastructure.

Majority of the jobs are in road transportation segment largely covering the truck /fleet operators, helpers, planners who plan the fleet management and the supervisors who manage the fleet operations.

All controllable reasons require prior approval from the Exchange, while force-majeure will be applicable for non-controllable reasons. The decision of the Exchange for deciding controllable and non-controllable reasons would be final.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

Global Economic Overview

Global GDP growth is projected to pick up modestly to around 3.5 per cent in 2018, from just under 3% in 2016, boosted by fiscal initiatives in the major economies. The forecast is broadly unchanged since November 2016. Confidence has improved, but consumption, investment, trade and productivity are far from strong, with growth slow by past norms and higher inequality. Disconnect between financial markets and fundamentals, potential market volatility, financial vulnerabilities and policy uncertainties could, however, derail the modest recovery. The positive assessment reflected in market valuations appears disconnected from real economy prospects. The interest-rate cycle turned in mid-2016 and rising divergence in interest rates between major economies heightens risks of exchange rate volatility. Vulnerabilities remain in some advanced economies from rapid house price increases. Risks to emerging market economies are high, including from higher corporate debt, rising non-performing loans and vulnerability to external shocks.

1. Fiscal years starting in April.

Domestic demand in the United States is set to strengthen over the next two years and expand at a solid pace, helped by gains in household wealth and a gradual upturn in energy production. Employment is rising steadily, although the pace is expected to ease somewhat, and wages should continue to pick up as the labour market tightens. GDP growth is projected to pick up to 2.4% in 2017 and 2.8% in 2018, supported by an anticipated fiscal expansion, especially in 2018, despite higher long-term interest rates and continued headwinds from the stronger US dollar. Policy choices, including on the composition of fiscal spending, taxation, regulation and trade, are likely to have a significant impact on growth outcomes.

Indicators and rising confidence point to stronger but still modest growth

Improved market sentiment contrasts with low growth in consumption and investment

(Source: <http://www.oecd.org/eco/outlook/Will-risks-derail-the-modest-recovery-OECD-Interim-Economic-Outlook-March-2017-presentation.pdf>)

The OECD in its Interim Economic Outlook published during March 2017, projected that the Global economic growth may pick up modestly to 3.3 percent in 2017 and to 3.6 percent in 2018. However, downside risks of rising protectionism, financial vulnerabilities, volatility from divergent interest rate paths and disconnects between market valuations and real activity may spoil the outlook. OECD in the said report has observed that although confidence has improved, consumption, investment, trade and productivity are far from strong, with growth slow by past norms and higher inequality.

Chart 1: Year-on-Year Real GDP growth rates of major countries/ region (percent)

Source: Bloomberg

Chart 2: Year-on-Year Consumer Price Inflation (percent)

Source: Bloomberg

Real GDP growth in the first half of the year was 7.2 percent, on the weaker side of the 7.0-7.75 per cent projection in the Economic Survey 2015-16 and somewhat lower than the 7.6 percent rate recorded in the second half of 2015-16 (Figure 1a). The main problem was fixed investment, which declined sharply as stressed balance sheets in the corporate sector continued to take a toll on firms' spending plans. The major highlights of the sectoral growth outcome of the first half of 2016-17 were:

(i) moderation in industrial and nongovernment service sectors; (ii) the modest pick-up in agricultural growth on the back of improved monsoon; and (iii) strong growth in public administration and defence services— dampeners on and catalysts to growth almost balancing each other and producing a real Gross Value Addition (GVA) growth (7.2 per cent), quite similar to the one (7.1 per cent) in 2015-16.

Indian Economy Overview

Introduction

According to the Economic Survey 2016-17, the Indian economy forecasts a growth rate of 6.75 to 7.5 per cent for FY18, as compared to the expected growth rate of 6.5 per cent in FY17. Over the medium run, the implementation of the Goods and Services Tax (GST), follow-up to demonetisation, and enacting other structural reforms should take the economy towards its potential real GDP growth of 8 per cent to 10 per cent.

Recent Trends

With the improvement in the economic scenario, there have been various investments leading to increased M&A activity. Some of them are as follows:

India has emerged as one of the strongest performers in terms of deals related to mergers and acquisitions (M&A). According to data from Thomson-Reuters, total M&A deals involving Indian companies grew by 82 per cent to US$ 27 billion during January to June 2016, which is the highest in the first six months in any year since 2011, led by a four and a half time increase of Indian acquisitions abroad at US$ 4.5 billion.

- The Government of India and the Government of the United States of America have signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) to enhance cooperation on energy security, clean energy and climate change through increased bilateral engagement and further joint initiatives for promoting sustainable growth.
- Under the new National Mineral Exploration Policy (NMEP), the Government of India plans to conduct e-auction of 62 mineral blocks of minerals such as iron ore, limestone and gold located across several states to further open up the mining sector and increase output of minerals in 2016-17.
- The Department of Electronics and Information Technology (DeitY) has been entrusted with the task of developing India's first national social security platform, aimed at distributing social security benefits directly to the beneficiaries account, thus doing away with intermediaries.
- According to The World Bank, India's per capita income is expected to cross Rs 100,000 (US$ 1,505) in FY 2017 from Rs 93,231 (US$ 1,403.5) in FY 2016.
- India's Index of Industrial Production (IIP) grew by 2.1 per cent year-on-year in June 2016, led by expansion in electricity and mining production.
- India's Consumer Price Index (CPI) inflation increased to 6.07 per cent in July 2016 as compared to 5.77 per cent in June 2016. On the other hand, the India's Wholesale Price Index (WPI) inflation increased to 3.6 per cent in July 2016, a 23-month high, as against negative 1.62 per cent in the previous month.

OVERVIEW OF LOGISTICS INDUSTRY IN INDIA

As per the Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India (ASSOCHAM), currently the annual logistics cost of the world is estimated at about USD 3.5 Trillion. India spends around 14.4% of its GDP on logistics and transportation as compared to less than 8% by the other developing countries. Indian freight transport market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 13.35% by 2020 driven by the growth in the manufacturing, retail, FMCG and e-commerce sectors. Freight transport market in India is expected to be worth US$ 307.70 billion by 2020 as compared to around US$ 164.45 billion in 2015. In India Road Freight constitutes around 63% of the total freight movement consisting of 2.2 million heavy duty trucks and 0.6 million light duty trucks annually. The road freight movement is expected to increase at a CAGR of 15%. The Sea Freight consists of around 9% of the total freight market and is mainly used as a major mode for imports and exports. The air freight consists of around 1% of the total freight market in India which will grow around 12.5% CAGR over the next 5 years. Companies in India currently outsource an estimated 52% of logistics and 3PL represents only 1% of logistics cost. As of now, the 3PL activity is limited to only few industries like automotive, IT hardware, telecom and infrastructure equipment. In developing countries like India, an efficient logistics infrastructure can reduce the cost of transportation which in turn can contribute directly to economic development. However, India lags behind several other countries in the global setup in terms of logistics infrastructure and services. Inadequate infrastructure is the major bottleneck impacting the development of logistics and the efficient movement of cargo in the country. However, investments in the logistics sector in the form of Port infrastructure development, Dedicated Freight Corridors, development of national highways, expanding the reach of the railways will play a central role in the future of this industry. According to the survey conducted by the Transport intelligence in 2013 ranks India as the second most attractive logistics market in the future after china. In India, about 110 new logistics parks are expected to be operational with an estimated cost of USD 1 Bn. Hence, India offers huge opportunities in development of logistics services including warehousing, cold storage, shipping, ports and multi modal transportation, etc.

Key trends driving the growth of Logistic Industry in India include:

- Higher levels of outsourced logistics
- Increasing complexity of logistics services requirements
- Increasing orientation towards global best practices

Several companies are increasingly leaning toward outsourcing and third-party logistics (3PL) models to optimize costs and focus on the core business. This trend is catalyzing consolidation and development in the highly-fragmented transport and logistics industry.

In addition, evolving regulatory changes are expected to boost private participation buoy by providing incentives to investors and operators — in the form of tax breaks — which will enhance supply-side infrastructure and capabilities.

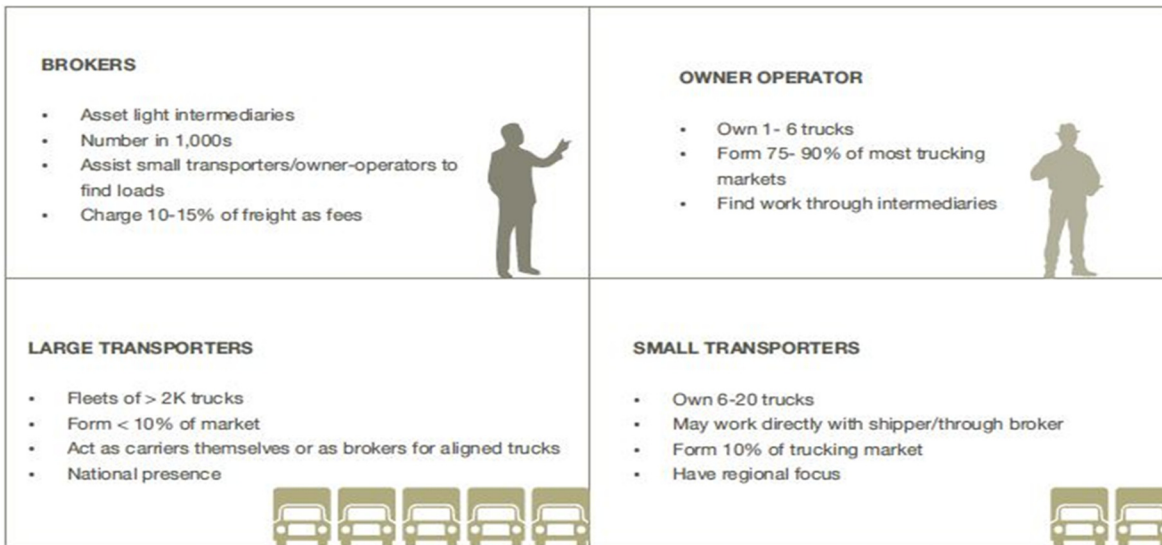

Among the modal mix, roads continue to constitute the most significant component of India’s logistics industry, accounting for 60 percent of total freight movement in the country. The share of road transport can expect additional growth, given its ability to facilitate last-mile reach and limited supporting rail infrastructure.

Majority of the jobs are in road transportation segment largely covering the truck /fleet operators, helpers, planners who plan the fleet management and the supervisors who manage the fleet operations.

Road Transport in India

Road transportation is a USD 1.5 trillion industry globally. In India it is an especially significant sector, given our reliance on roads for freight transport. Over 60% of total freight in India is transported by road, and road transportation is estimated to be a USD 96 billion industry. Experts expect this industry to grow at a compounded annual rate of 15% over the next 5 years (as per ASSOCHEM), more than double the expected rate of growth of the economy.

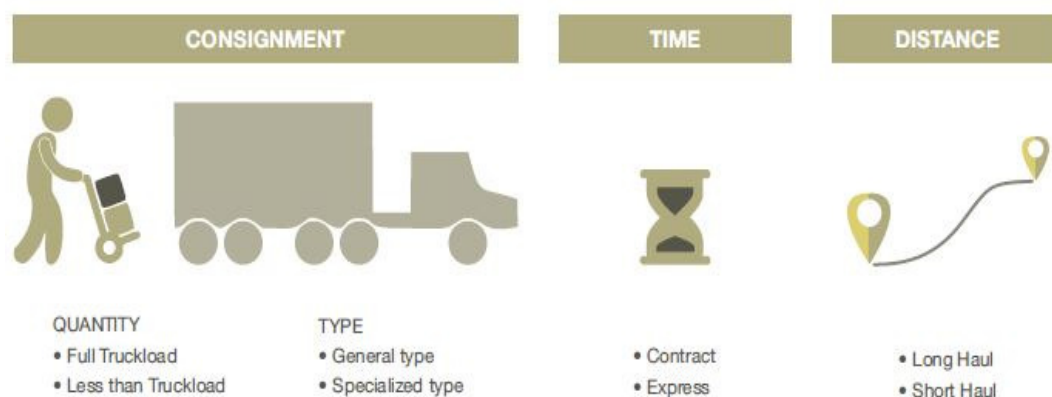

Low entry barriers characterize the Indian trucking market, making it owner-operator driven on the supply side. Moreover, over 90% of the industry comprises of transporters with 25 fleets of under six vehicles. As is common in markets where supply is fragmented and geographically dispersed (another classic example being real-estate), trucking has many intermediaries that help match demand and supply. These agents tend to specialize in certain routes or regions and often provide other services like documentation and carrier verification as well.

In general, freight transportation tends to be far more complex than moving people. Different types of freight have different handling and storage requirements, some of which may require the use of specialized vehicles like tankers and reefers. Even standard vehicles vary based on length and tonnage.

Trucking landscape in India can be segregated as follows:

- By distance: Long haul trucking refers to inter-city trips and short haul refers to intra city trucking within a 50 km radius. The latter usually involves the use of mini-trucks (under 3.5 tonnes) and vans to counter traffic congestion and transportation restrictions.
- By time sensitivity: Express trucking involves operations where routes and departure times are fixed. Express trucks do not halt enroute even on long trips and often have two drivers who drive in relay.
- By consignment size: Trucking may further be split into Full Truckload (FTL) and Less Than Truckload (LTL). The terms are self-explanatory, where for FTL, shippers can book the whole truck, for LTL, only part space can be booked. LTL shippers may need to wait up to a week for goods to be shipped as the carrier tries to fill a truck load with multiple shipments. Experts estimate the Indian LTL market to be lower than 1% of the total road freight. Lack of standardization of trucks and cargo make LTL an underdeveloped and low margin market in India.

Because trucking is fragmented and heavily intermediated, the industry suffers from opaque pricing, which gets exacerbated during demand spikes in harvest and holiday seasons. Trucking brokerage rates can vary between INR 500 to INR 2000 or in the range of 7 – 15% of freight value per transaction. Industry margins depend on macro factors like economic growth, taxes and legislation as well as on fuel prices (which make up close to 50% of total freight transport cost).

The key industry participants include the transport operators which are the trucking companies, and which solicit freight and convey it from one location to another. The transport operators or freight transportation services providers can be broadly classified as small fleet operators (SFOs), medium fleet operators (MFOs) and large fleet operators (LFOs) on the basis of number of trucks they own or control.

Factors Impacting Business Model

Full Truck Load (FTL)

The FTL segment comprises of a business model wherein the LFOs have contracts with the end-user to provide door-to-door service and pay for the entire load carrying capacity of the truck (or FTL) from one location to another. The service is offered at a predetermined price and is generally used by customers/ manufacturers with large quantities of goods to be transported.

Less than Truck Load (LTL)

The LTL segment service is categorized into two categories: parcel and express cargo. LTL involves partial or less than the full capacity of the truck load. In LTL operations, the customers do not hire the entire truck, and the LTL service provider aggregates consignments from various clients and sends them across to the desired destination. Unlike FTL operations, wherein the consignment originates from a single source, this arrangement requires a wider reach and adequate infrastructure.

Freight rates

A transporter's profitability is largely dependent on freight rates, as it is their source of revenue. Road freight rates are primarily governed by the demand-supply scenario in the freight industry, which is dependent on existing truck capacities. The bargaining power of transporters also plays a role in the freight rates they can command. Given that the industry is highly fragmented, bargaining power differs according to the size of the operator. Typically, LFOs have a better bargaining power than SFOs due to the contractual nature of their business. However, during periods of low freight availability, the bargaining power of all the operators is affected.

Fleet utilization

Fleet utilization levels are another determinant of a transporter's profitability as during a slowdown, the cost of maintaining a vehicle may exceed the freight it brings in. Several factors affect utilization levels such as the demand-supply scenario, the goods the operator can transport and the routes which he plies. An LFO with a larger proportion of attached fleet can manage his utilization levels better by restricting hiring vehicles from the spot market. SFOs however, are affected by the competitive rates offered in the spot market due to a higher level of fragmentation amongst themselves. The nature of goods that an operator can transport may also affect availability of freight as production of certain brackets of goods are more affected in a weak macroeconomic environment. Thirdly, metro routes generally draw more transportation than tier-I and tier-II routes, also affecting fleet utilization levels. LFOs generally have a pan-India or multi-regional network and ply mostly on the metro routes. They also service tier-I and tier-II routes through spot arrangements with local players in the market, but this does not affect their utilization levels. On the other hand, SFOs and medium freight operators (MFOs) generally have a regional presence and cater to the tier-I and tier-II routes. In 2015-2016, with industrial activity and infrastructure project execution gathering pace, the fleet utilization levels are around 75 per cent.

Load flexibility

An LFO has the flexibility to offer services like full truck load (FTL), less than truck load (LTL) and express cargo transportation. Express cargo and parcel services also offer them higher margins. In the express segment, LFOs realise positive cash flows even at 40 per cent utilisation levels. With this flexibility in the kinds of loads services being offered, an LFO can restrict the impact on his margins when freight availability is low. However, SFOs or MFOs are unable to provide these premium services and therefore cannot cushion the impact on their margins in such periods. Thus, LFOs are better able to manage in an unfavorable business environment than SFOs.

Other factors

Other costs that a transport operator bears are fixed costs and variable costs. Fixed costs would typically comprise of interest payments, crew charges, administrative overheads, maintenance repairs, wayside expenses and amounts pertaining to contract amount, insurance payment, road taxes and permit charges, and the variable costs would include the driver and cleaner's salaries, fuel, toll taxes, lubricants, tyres, spare parts and other running expenditures. Fuel costs comprise more than 40 per cent of the total input costs and any change in fuel prices directly hits profitability. Some costs like payments to intermediaries, payments made in the form of border and state taxes at check posts may be appropriated in either fixed or variable cost. Assessment of the cost structure of different commercial vehicles is based on our understanding of the industry's dynamics and industry interactions.

Factors affecting transporters' profitability

Framework to gauge impact of variables on transporter profitability

Many challenges plague Indian trucking, adding up to make road freight an expensive proposition. Some of these are as follows -

- 1) Road infrastructure - Roads are the primary infrastructure required for the trucking sector. In 2013, the total road length in India was 4.7 million kilometers making it the second largest road network in the world. However, 61% of these are not even double lane roads, and only 3% are 4 lane or above. India's share of national highways in total road network is among the lowest in the world, at just 1.7%. This 1.7% carries over 40% of total freight traffic. An average Indian truck clocks only 60 – 100K miles per year, 1/6th the miles clocked by an average American truck. Poor efficiency is driven only in part by poor infrastructure.
- 2) Variable tax structures - State specific taxes and legislation is another big factor affecting efficiency in the industry. Not only does this result in transport decisions being made on the basis of tax saving rather than operational efficiency but also causes delays at state borders and toll booths lead to Indian trucks losing several hours in a day. Most transporters give the truck driver a fixed sum to cover roadside expenses, salary and inducements. This provides perverse incentives for malpractices like overloading and fuel mixing, which in turn worsens fuel economies.
- 3) Route variability - Familiarity with border officials, local language and routes leads drivers to prefer certain routes, further encouraging regional fragmentation. This results in 30-50% of empty back-hauls as truckers do not have networks to connect with shippers in the destination city. Empty returns pull down profitability further.
- 4) Low skilled labour - Truck drivers themselves are low skilled and poorly paid. This coupled with poor working conditions has led to a shortage of drivers. IFTR estimates the driver shortage to hit 50% by 2020.
- 5) Liquidity challenges - Working capital issues abound in the long haul segment. Large volume shippers or manufacturers have payment cycles of 30 – 90 days. However, truck drivers demand cash down payments to manage en-route expenses and speed money. Most large transporters end up providing for this capital, which further eats into their margins.

These inefficiencies have meant that road transportation is expensive in India, by almost 30% when compared to the US on a purchasing power adjusted basis.

Despite challenges, the demand for road freight is projected to grow at close to 13% over the next 5 years. In addition to macro drivers of economic growth which will aid this market, a sizeable part of this growth is expected to come from the demand spurt in e-commerce.

Government Initiatives

The 'Make in India' campaign is being envisaged as a key strand of strategy for Indian economic revival and sustained growth. It promises that a boost in the country's manufacturing capabilities by inviting foreign capital and technology would not only adjust the balance in India's GDP skewed towards services but also provide employment. 'Make in India' embodies the manufacturing led, trade-export-growth model that has to be situated and understood in the context of global production systems. Therefore, the 'Make in India' strategy has to embed itself within the global supply chain network to participate and garner a greater share in the world trade.

The trade logistics network forms the backbone of modern supra-national supply chains. Even if global production were to shift to India due to favourable wage-labour arbitrage, skilled work force, availability of industry specific clusters, reduction in non-tariff barriers amongst other incentives and she becomes the factory of the world a la China, high logistics costs could negate any low cost production advantage. Indian logistics costs are estimated to be at a high of around 13 to 14 per cent of GDP, almost double, when compared with 7 to 8 per cent of GDP in developed countries having superior logistics performance.

'Make in India' would necessitate more than mere connectivity to international trade logistics network, rather complete integration with it so that exporters can move, store and deliver goods faster and cheaper, the only way to retain their competitive advantage.

Currently, the manufacturing sector in India contributes over 15 per cent of the GDP. The Government of India, under the Make in India initiative, is trying to give boost to the contribution made by the manufacturing sector and aims to take it up to 25 per cent of the GDP.

Based on the recommendations of the Foreign Investment Promotion Board (FIPB), the Government of India has recently approved 23 proposals of FDI amounting to Rs 10,378.92 crore (US$ 1,567.75 million) approximately in August 2016.

The Government of India has launched an initiative to create 100 smart cities as well as Atal Mission for Rejuvenation and Urban Transformation (AMRUT) for 500 cities with an outlay of Rs 48,000 crore (US$ 7.47 billion) and Rs 50,000 crore (US$ 7.78 billion) crore respectively. Smart cities are satellite towns of larger cities which will consist of modern infrastructure and will be digitally connected. The program was formally launched on June 25, 2015. The Phase I for Smart City Kochi (SCK) will be built on a total area of 650,000 sq. ft., having a floor space greater than 100,000 sq. ft. Besides, it will also generate a total of 6,000 direct jobs in the IT sector.

The Indian Government is taking every possible initiative to boost the infrastructure sector. Some of the steps taken in the recent past are being discussed hereafter. Indian transportation and logistics industry is looking forward to the next level of growth, efficiency and sophistication, gradually leaving behind the traditional issues pivoted around inefficiencies and regulatory challenges. It is in this context, that regulatory reforms in the form of Goods and Services Tax (GST) are much needed now than perhaps ever before. Post GST, there will be improvement in the logistic time after phasing out the border check posts resulting in improvement in operational efficiency through quicker and increased number of deliveries along with reduction in logistic cost during the transit. As per World Bank estimation, Indian corporates can save up to 30-40% of logistic costs incurred due to stoppages at various tolls and check posts. The implementation of the bill is expected to trim the logistic costs up to 20% from the current levels.

GOODS AND SERVICES TAX (GST)

The passage of the Goods and Services Tax bill can give a fillip to the trucking industry with ripple effects throughout the logistics sector for the following reasons - firstly, by simplifying the tax system, GST would reduce wait time at check posts which is currently spent in dealing with numerous state taxes. At inter-state check points, trucks have to wait for an average of 5-7 hours. In India, a truck can cover only an average of 250-400 km per day as against 700-800 km per day covered by trucks in US and Europe. Although there are other factors for the poor efficiency such as lack of GPS route optimization, poor quality vehicles, road quality etc., simply eliminating the 5-7 hours wasted at check points would result in an extra 100-140 km covered per day.

Also, drivers, at present, often avoid unfamiliar inter-state routes since they are uncomfortable with language barriers etc. – another challenge the GST bill is expected to reduce. Secondly, companies are compelled to maintain warehouses in each state in the current scenario, which is an extremely inefficient and expensive proposition. GST incentivizes fragmentation throughout the value chain. The creation of logistics hubs and parks and increased focus on operational efficiency will result in potential benefits from economies of scale in trucking. The current model of owner-operator in trucking industry could slowly fade away with the passage of GST and get replaced by large nationwide freight transport contractors. It is estimated that the implementation of the bill will trim the logistic costs up to 20% from the current levels.

Industry growth

Demand for freight transport by road is achieving a significant boost from the overall growth of core industries such as crude oil, petroleum and petroleum products, natural gas, fertilizer, coal, electricity, cement, finished steel, textiles, FMCG etc. The Indian textiles industry is expected to triple from USD 78 billion currently to USD 220 billion by 2020. The overall FMCG market is expected to increase at (CAGR) of 14.7 per cent to touch USD 110.4 billion in 2020. Increasing demand in turn, drives up freight rates. For instance, road freight rates for a return trip from Delhi to Mumbai and Delhi to Chennai, in April 2016, rose 6.7% and 4.4% respectively, according to data available with the Indian Foundation of Transport Research and Training (IFTRT). This pace of increase is the fastest ever observed year on year. There has been a 10% increase in the movement by road of cement, fertilizer and steel in April which further helped improve the rate of fleet utilization and round trip prices on trunk routes by 10-15%.

Growth of E-commerce

The rapid growth of e-tail has introduced new logistics elements into the traditional supply chain. One of the biggest challenges for e-tail players has been fulfillment of orders, a large proportion of which come from tier 1-3 cities and towns. The average fulfillment costs for most players stand at 7 – 10% of GMV. Of this the largest component is line-haul, which involves shipping orders from the origin city (merchant-location) to the destination city (where the customer is), accounts for 57% of total costs. Today, 80-90% of inter-city e-tail orders in India are being transported by air, driven by the need for fast fulfillment coupled with the poor efficiencies of road transportation. However, as e-commerce evolves, it is expected that increasing margin pressure and high congestion at airports will force e-commerce players to turn to road freight, resulting in road freight to account for close to 75% of e-tail order fulfillment by the end of the decade. Further, an increasing share of e-tail in larger cities will be same city commerce i.e. fulfilled using inventory housed in warehouses in or around the city. These trends will mean that both short haul and long haul trucking are likely to see a lot of new demand from ecommerce.

Technology Adoption

Tech adoption of Indian trucking is a recent phenomenon that has gained significant traction in a short period of time. Business models, dominated by load boards and freight marketplaces, that evolved over three decades in the US, have been adapted and executed rapidly in India. Driven by surging consumer and industrial demand and the growth of e-commerce, trucking-tech has also seen significant increase in private funding. Through various innovations, trucking start-ups are aiming to solve problems of inefficiencies and price arbitrage that plague the traditional market, by providing faster transactions, efficient spot pricing driving higher utilization and cost-efficiencies from disintermediation. The critical advantage of online trucking platforms lies in their ability to predict demand dynamically and in real time. Through that they can enable efficient spot pricing creating a win-win for both the shipper and the transporter/carrier. The accuracy of dynamic pricing in turn will keep improving as number of transactions driven by the platform increase. With an overall road freight market estimated at close to USD 97 billion, trucking represents a colossal opportunity.

OVERVIEW OF LOGISTICS INDUSTRY IN INDIA

As per the Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry Of India (ASSOCHAM), currently the annual logistics cost of the world is estimated at about USD 3.5 Trillion. India spends around 14.4% of its GDP on logistics and transportation as compared to less than 8% by the other developing countries. Indian freight transport market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 13.35% by 2020 driven by the growth in the manufacturing, retail, FMCG and e-commerce sectors. Freight transport market in India is expected to be worth US$ 307.70 billion by 2020 as compared to around US$ 164.45 billion in 2015. In India Road Freight constitutes around 63% of the total freight movement consisting of 2.2 million heavy duty trucks and 0.6 million light duty trucks annually. The road freight movement is expected to increase at a CAGR of 15%. The Sea Freight consists of around 9% of the total freight market and is mainly used as a major mode for imports and exports. The air freight consists of around 1% of the total freight market in India which will grow around 12.5% CAGR over the next 5 years. Companies in India currently outsource an estimated 52% of logistics and 3PL represents only 1% of logistics cost. As of now, the 3PL activity is limited to only few industries like automotive, IT hardware, telecom and infrastructure equipment. In developing countries like India, an efficient logistics infrastructure can reduce the cost of transportation which in turn can contribute directly to economic development. However, India lags behind several other countries in the global setup in terms of logistics infrastructure and services. Inadequate infrastructure is the major bottleneck impacting the development of logistics and the efficient movement of cargo in the country. However, investments in the logistics sector in the form of Port infrastructure development, Dedicated Freight Corridors, development of national highways, expanding the reach of the railways will play a central role in the future of this industry. According to the survey conducted by the Transport intelligence in 2013 ranks India as the second most attractive logistics market in the future after china. In India, about 110 new logistics parks are expected to be operational with an estimated cost of USD 1 Bn. Hence, India offers huge opportunities in development of logistics services including warehousing, cold storage, shipping, ports and multi modal transportation, etc.
